Professional Activities

Member, Board of Directors, Performance Capital Management, LLC. PCM LLC is a California-based corporation with assets of approximately $20 million.

Curriculum Consultant, Florida A & M University School of Law, October-December 2005.

Facilitator, Oxfam/Novib-sponsored strategic meeting of Asian environmental and social action organizations, Penang, Malaysia, April 2004

Rapporteur, World Bank/FAO Experts' Consultation on Effective Legal and Institutional Arrangements for Shrimp Aquaculture, Brisbane, Australia, December 1999

Conference Coordinator, "Effective Strategies for Protecting Human Rights: Economic Sanctions, Use of National Courts, the Role of Media, and Coercive Power: A Symposium on Practical Strategies for Human Rights Protection," April 13-15, 2000

Member, Equity Shareholders Committee (appointed by the Justice Department) in an ongoing bankruptcy case in California. On behalf of the limited partners we succeeded in taking control of $30 million in investor assets from an unscrupulous general partner and in the process protecting 2300 elderly investors from losing all their money in a highly suspect equity limited partnership. The reorganized company emerged from bankruptcy in January 2002 and I was elected to a term on the board of directors.

Member of litigation team in NEPA lawsuit by NRDC and other environmental plaintiffs against the U.S. Department of Energy. The settlement in favor of the plaintiffs included creation of a comprehensive data base by DOE accessible to the public and payment of $6.25 million by DOE into a new foundation that will greatly enhance the ability of environmentally concerned citizens to monitor and challenge the nuclear activities of DOE.

Member, Board of Editors, Journal of Legal Education, 1995-1997

Facilitator, Ohio Conclave on the Legal Profession, 1994

Coordinator, CSU Environmental Semester in Washington, D.C., 1994-1997, supervising students working in the Justice Department, at NRDC, and with a Congressional subcommittee chaired by Rep. Michael Oxley

Senior Project Associate, Center for Global Change, University of Maryland, 1993-1994 (exploring the connections between positive economic development and environmental solutions)

Consultant, William Bingham Foundation, 1991 (focusing on environmental programs)

Consultant, University of Akron, 1989

Globescope 87 Coordinator, 1985-87, Global Tomorrow Coalition. Globescope was an international conference dealing with practical solutions to problems of environment, population, and economic development

Consultant, British Petroleum/Sovonics Solar Systems, 1986 (developing business strategy)

Consultant, Syracuse University, 1983

Consultant, World Resources Institute, 1982 (helped develop part of WRI's initial agenda)

Consultant, International Institute for Environment and Development, 1981-84

Consultant, Natural Resources Defense Council, 1981-84

Consultant, U.S. Department of Education (various years)

Rapporteur, National Foresight Capability Workshop, U.S. House of Representatives, Energy and Commerce Committee, 1982

Special Advisor, The Year 2000 Committee, 1981-82

Rapporteur, National Environmental Leadership Conference, The National Audubon Society, 1981

Program Consultant, Legal Services Corporation (various years)

Chairman (three terms), Association of American Law Schools (AALS), Section on Clinical Legal Education, 1977-1979

Special Consultant, ABA-AALS Committee on Guidelines for Clinical Legal Education, 1977-1980

Trainer, Legal Services Corporation, 1977-1987

Training Coordinator, Cuyahoga County Public Defender, 1977-1979

Consultant, Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, Toronto, 1977, 1979

Consultant, Georgetown University Law Center, 1980-1981 (in-depth evaluation of five advocacy clinics)

Consultant, University of Connecticut School of Law, 1977

University and Community Activities

Chair, Law School Curriculum Planning Committee, 1998-2000

Member, CSU International Programs Committee, 2001-2002

Chair, Law School International Programs Committee, 1998-2002

Member, CSU Pew Higher Educational Roundtable, 1998-2000

Member, Advisory Committee, Great Lakes Museum of Science and Technology, 1994-1995

Member, Technical Advisory Council, Cuyahoga County Solid Waste Strategy Group, 1991 - 1992

Organizer and Coordinator, conference on The Justice Mission of American Law Schools, October, 1991

Organizer and Moderator, Symposium on The Allocation of Risk and Suffering: The Practical Application of Jurisprudential Thought, Cleveland State University, October, 1989. (This brought John Finnis, David Luban, Mark Tushnet and others to the law school to present papers on legal philosophy. It resulted in a well-received double issue of the law review.)

President, Board of Trustees, Fairmount Fine Arts Center, 1991 to 1993

Founded and directed the Environmental Law Clinic at CSU, 1991

Developed an extensive strategic planning document for CSU and worked with university-wide Strategic Planning Committee, 1991-1992

Developed the strategic plan for the Fairmount Fine Arts Center, 1993-1994

Founded and directed the clinical program at the Cleveland State University College of Law, 1972-1979. The program was recognized nationally for its excellence.

Founded and served as initial director of CSU's Street Law Program, 1974. It was the second program of its kind in the United States.

Member, Steering Committee, CSU Center for Effective Learning, 1972-1974

Fundraising Activity

Extensive fundraising activity includes:

Raising funds for the law school's clinical programs when I directed the criminal and civil clinics for eight years, as well as developing and obtaining funding for CSU's Street Law Program, the second of its kind in the U.S.

Raising funds for the first three AALS National Clinical conferences.

Doing the fundraising for the ABA/AALS Clinical Guidelines Project that ran from 1977-1979.

Raising funds for the Training Program of the Cuyahoga County Public Defender's Office that I coordinated for three years.

President and Vice-President for Development for the Fairmount Fine Arts Center.

Raising money for the Year 2000 Committee for which I served as Executive Director in its start-up period in 1980-81.

Fundraising for the Globescope 87 International Conference.

I played an instrumental role in raising more than $500,000 in funding related to international work in shrimp aquaculture for the international network, ISA Net, from the Rockefeller Brothers Fund and the John D. and Catherine MacArthur Foundation.
