

Criminal Law

Criminal Law is a practice area of the law that involves a somewhat different perspective on the law, than most other practice areas. There is a particular criminal procedure as well as other specialized areas of the law. Cleveland-Marshall has a concentration in Criminal Law that requires students to become familiar with this body of law. Cleveland-Marshall Criminal Law Concentration

The practice of criminal law tends to organize practitioners into either defense attorneys or prosecutors. There are several levels of government prosecutors and both public defenders and private defenders.
