

Cleveland-Marshall College of Law Library Faculty Current Awareness Bulletin September/October 2001

The Faculty Current Awareness Bulletin is published bi-monthly by the Cleveland-Marshall Law School Library for the faculty and staff of the Law School. The Bulletin contains selected announcements of symposia, conferences, requests for articles and requests for research proposals. If you have any questions concerning the material which appears in the Bulletin, or any suggestions on the type of material you would like to see included in the Bulletin, please contact Michael J. Slinger, Law Library Director at (216) 687-3547, or Leslie A. Pardo, Circulation and Faculty Services Librarian at (216) 687-6885. Additional information and some registration forms may be obtained by contacting Leslie A. Pardo.

SYMPOSIA AND CONFERENCES

Hofstra University will host a program on Legal Ethics: What Needs Fixing? on September 9-11, 2001 in Hempstead, NY. Contact Hofstra Cultural Center by phone at (516) 463-5669 or consult the web site at http://www.hofstra.edu/Academics/Law/law_ethics_conference.cfm

Seattle University School of Law will host a conference entitled Assimilation & Resistance: Emerging Issues in Law & Sexuality on September 21st and 22nd, 2001. The conference is aimed at exploring the intersections between law and sexuality in the current political economy. Registration for the conference will be available through Seattle University School of Law's web site at <http://www.seattleu.edu>.

The American Society of Law will present Medicine & Ethics Health, Law and Human Rights: Exploring the Connections An International Cross-Disciplinary Conference honoring Jonathan M. Mann from September 29th to October 1st, 2001 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. For more information contact ASLME, 765 Commonwealth Avenue, Suite 1634 Boston, MA 02215. Ph: (617) 262-4990 Fax: (617) 437-7596. Email: info@aslme.org website: <http://www.aslme.org/conferences/index.html>

The AALS Workshop for Law School Deans, will be held on October 4th-6th, 2001 in Westminister, Colorado. The theme for the workshop will be Managing Conflict and Building Consensus in Law Schools: Strategies, Procedures and Skills for Effective Deans. For information, refer to the web page at <http://www.aals.org/profdev/deans/index.html>

The Association for Conflict Resolution presents Coming Together, the first international conference of the Association for Conflict Resolution in cooperation with the National Association for Community Mediation. The conference will be held October 10-13, 2001 at the Sheraton Centre in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. For more information visit their web site at: <http://www.acresolution.org>

The Chicago-Kent Intellectual Property Program and the Chicago-Kent Law Review will host a symposium on Constructing International Intellectual Property Law: The Role of National Courts on October 18th-19th, 2001. For more information contact Jon Taylor at jtaylor@kentlaw.edu. website: <http://www.kentlaw.edu/depts/ipp/intl-courts/>

Association of American Law Schools will hold its annual Faculty Recruitment Conference (FRC) October 18th to October 20th, 2001 at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, DC. For more information contact the AALS at (202) 296-8851 or email jrafanan@aals.org website: <http://www.aals.org/frs/index.html>

The American Bar Association Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar present Conference on Foreign Legal Education at Hastings College of Law, University of California, San Francisco from October 26-27, 2001. For more information please visit their web site at: <http://www.abanet.org/legaled/>

The Hamline University School of Law presents Intentional Conversations about Race, Mediation and Dispute Resolution October 27th & 28th, 2001 in St. Paul, Minnesota. For more information contact: Kitty Atkins, Associate Director, Ph: 651-523-2897 Fax: 651-523-2236 Email: katkins@gw.hamline.edu website: <http://www.hamline.edu/law/adr/symposium.html>

The Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys Annual Fall Conference will be held in Bermuda on November 3-7, 2001. For information on the program, see the MATA web page at www.massacademy.com or contact the Academy by phone at (617) 248-5858.

The American Society for Legal History's Annual Meeting will be held November 8th-10th, 2001 in Chicago, Illinois. For more information contact dnieman@bgnet.bgsu.edu

CALL FOR PAPERS, PROPOSALS, AND GRANTS

The New York Law School Journal of Human Rights is accepting papers for publication in conjunction with a special issue it is publishing. The special issue will include material from a symposium that focuses on genetic discrimination in the employment context and in the criminal justice field. The Journal is interested in broadening the scope of the issue by seeking additional papers for this issue. The expected publication date is February 2002. Papers must be submitted no later than October 1, 2001. The symposium is being cosponsored by the NYLS Center for City Law, NYC Commission on Human Rights and the NYLS Justice Action Center. It will take place on Nov. 9, 2001. Accepted papers will be publicized at this event. To request more information about the symposium or to submit a paper (in Microsoft Word format) please contact: Amy E. Fallon, Executive Topics Editor, NYLS Journal of Human Rights, 57 Worth Street, New York, N.Y. 10013 Ph: (212) 431-2386 Fax: (212) 431-3295 E-mail afallon@nyls.edu

The Supreme Court Judicial Fellows Program seeks outstanding individuals from diverse professions and academic backgrounds, including law, the social and behavioral sciences, public and business administration, systems research and analysis, communications, and the humanities. Work assignments and projects reflect the needs of the judiciary and the interests and capabilities of the fellows. Applications must be postmarked by the November 9, 2001 deadline. For more information contact Supreme Court Judicial Fellows Program, Office of the Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice, Supreme Court of the United States, One First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20543. Ph: (202) 479-3415 website: <http://www.fellows.supremecourtus.gov/index.html>

Salmon P. Chase College of Law is actively seeking articles for publication in their upcoming General Issue of the Northern Kentucky Law Review. Articles on any topic are published in the General Issue. All selections in the Northern Kentucky Law Review are indexed by the H.W. Wilson Company in its Index to Legal Periodicals. Although the Northern Kentucky Law Review publishes articles from professors, practitioners, jurists, and students from all over the country and the world, the Law Review is specifically targeting those from the state of Kentucky and surrounding states. All articles can be submitted via standard mail or email. The postal address that articles should be submitted to is: Eric W. Young, Nunn Hall - Room 116, Salmon P. Chase College of Law Library, Northern Kentucky University, Highland Heights, KY 41076. The email address the article should be submitted to is: younge@nku.edu

Call for journal articles: Vytautas Magnus University School of Law Law Review "Teises Apzvalga" seeks journal articles. Vytautas Magnus University is located in Kaunas, Lithuania. VMU's law review publishes articles in the Lithuanian or English languages. Sometimes writings are translated and are published in both languages. Articles submitted should have a bearing upon matters pertaining to Eastern European legal problems, to those of mixed jurisdictions, or to comparative law. Submissions should be made in electronic form to dir@ti.vdu.lt.

The Whittier Law Review is published quarterly by students of Whittier Law School, Costa Mesa, California. Whittier Law Review invites authors to submit manuscripts of articles and speeches for possible publication. Manuscripts should be typed and double spaced and should conform generally to ALWD. Each manuscript will be reviewed by the Whittier Law Review Editorial Board and, if accepted, printed as soon as the publication schedule permits. Please enclose an envelope with return postage if you would like your manuscript returned after consideration. All Manuscripts should be directed to: Stacy Procter Solicitations Editor, Whittier Law Review, 3333 Harbor Boulevard, Costa Mesa, CA 92626 Ph: (714) 444-4141 ext.355 Fax: (714) 444-3605 e-mail submissions goodieprocter@worldnet.att.net attach manuscript as a

WordPerfect or Word file. website: <http://www.law.whittier.edu/wlslr/Submissions.htm>

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

The Starr Center for International Law at New York Law School sponsors research and offers extensive resources in international law with a concentration on the law of international trade and finance. For information about the Center's publications and symposia events consult their web site at: <http://www.nyls.edu/CIL/index.htm>.

FirstGov™ is an official United States Government website consolidating some 20,000 separate Federal websites FirstGov provides the public with easy, one-stop access to all online U.S. Federal Government resources. FirstGov is a Project of the President's Management Council and is managed by the FirstGov Team. For more information contact: FirstGov c/o GSA, 1800 F Street, N.W. Room 5240, Washington, D.C. 20405-0002 Please visit their website at: <http://www.firstgov.gov/index.html>

The U. S. Supreme Court inaugurated a new web site on April 17, 2000. The site's features include biographies of the justices, information about the court's rules and procedures, and opinions from the current term. You may visit their website at the following: www.supremecourtus.gov.

The ABA's Supreme Court Preview draws upon expert writers and the official briefs filed with the Court to provide an accurate, plain English explanation of the issues, facts, background and significance of every case before oral argument. You may visit the website at the following: <http://www.abanet.org/publiced/preview/home.html>

The National Center For State Courts provides links to state court, federal court and international court web sites at www.ncsc.dni.us The NCSC Publications Catalog is also listed on its web site.

The University Law Review Project offers full-text searching of law journals on the Internet at: www.lawreview.org

The National Institute for Trial Advocacy's (NITA) mission is to provide training in legal advocacy skills and techniques for resolving legal disputes and to foster professionally responsible behavior emphasizing ethics, candor, civility, and judicial economy. To achieve its mission, NITA uses various teaching methods, programs, faculty, and materials. They have a web site listing CLE courses they offer and a listing of the types of reference books, case files, and audio/video materials they have available, as well, as information about NITA. You may visit their web site at: <http://www.nita.org/>

The American Association of Law Schools (AALS) calendar can be viewed at the following

web site: <http://www.aals.org/aalscal.html>

The American Bar Association's Events and Education web site lists a calendar of National Institutes, Satellite Seminars, TeleConferences, and On-Line Seminars and a full range of continuing legal education programs, including live conference-style programs, telephone seminars, national telecasts, online seminars, videotapes, audiotapes, and course materials. You may visit their web site at: <http://www.abanet.org/events.html>

The American Law Institute-American Bar Association Committee on Continuing Professional Education, ALI-ABA, providers of continuing legal education in the United States since 1947, offers members of the profession a comprehensive curriculum of post-admission legal education -- live courses, course materials, video and audio tapes, satellite broadcasts, books, computer disks, and magazines, etc. You may visit their web site at: <http://www.ali-aba.org/>

The Ohio CLE Institute, a non-profit organization, was created as a tripartite entity in 1960 by The Ohio State University, the Ohio State Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Foundation "in furthering a joint program of legal research and continuing legal education with the College of Law." The mission statement for the Institute includes: to provide quality educational programs and services to Ohio attorneys, judges and related professionals at the lowest practical cost. You may visit their web site at: <http://www.ohiocle.org/>

JURIST: "The Law Professors' Network," collects law professors' web based home pages, course pages, resource pages and online articles (both "pre prints" and "post prints") and for the first time makes them conveniently accessible to other law professors, lawyers, and law students, as well as to the public at large. JURIST also offers listings for the Web sites of major professional and legal associations, directories of law review and law school home pages, pointers to law listservs, access to a law dedicated search engine, direct email connections to other legal academics in the US and abroad. JURIST is continually under development, so updated information and suggestions for new links are welcome. Bernard Hibbitts is the web master for JURIST. He is the Dean for Communications & Information Technology and Professor of Law at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. e-mail: Hibbitts@law.pitt.edu web site: <http://jurist.law.pitt.edu/>

Prepared by Leslie A. Pardo, Circulation & Faculty Services Librarian
If you have questions, comments, or suggestions, please contact me at:
leslie.pardo@law.csuohio.edu