

March 4, 2017 CLE- Modern Estate Planning: Digital Assets, Electronic Wills, and More

Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association would like to invite you to attend a three-hour CLE (pending approval) that will provide legal professionals a look at recent changes in Estate Planning in the digital age.

This three-hour course will address Estate Planning in a time where assets are often digital and wills are drawn up electronically. Join us, and our panel of experts; Charles F. Adler, Kyle B. Gee, David M. Lenz, Colleen Meredith, M. Elizabeth Monihan, Maryann Fremion Thomas, and Gregory A. Thompson as we look at issues of inheritance in the ever-changing 21st century.

We look forward to you joining us for another exciting CLE!

WHAT: Three-hour CLE - Credit Pending.

WHERE: Cleveland-Marshall College of Law Moot Courtroom

WHEN: March 4, 2017

Registration at 8:30 AM

CLE begins promptly at 9 AM and will conclude at 12:15 PM

HOW: Pre-register to Jennifer Wilson for $75 by emailing

CMLAACLE@gmail.com or calling 440-263-3659.

*Discounted rate of $65 for CMLAA Members.

You can Pay and Register online at <https://give.classy.org/cmlaaMar4cle>