

March 18, 2017 CLE- Addressing Changes in Family and Juvenile Law

Cleveland-Marshall Law Alumni Association would like to invite you to attend a three-hour CLE (pending approval) that will be a practical guide for attorneys to better understand recent changes to Family and Juvenile Law.

This three-hour course, organized by attorney and alumnus Kevin Butler, will provide an overview and update on recent changes in Ohio Family and Juvenile Law. Join us, and our panel of experts, Laurie A. Malone, Ryan P. Nowlin, and Jason D. Wallace, as we look at such issues as: Alternative Family Dispute Resolution, Calculating and Modifying Child Support and Spousal Support, and Child Advocacy in Administrative and School Discipline Matters.

We look forward to you joining us for another exciting CLE!

WHAT: Three Hour CLE - Credit Pending.

WHERE: Cleveland-Marshall College of Law Moot Courtroom

WHEN: March 18, 2017

Registration at 8:30 AM

CLE begins promptly at 9 AM and will conclude at 12:15 PM

HOW: Pre-register to Jennifer Wilson for $75 by emailing

cmlaacle@gmail.com or calling 440-263-3659.

*Discounted rate of $65 for CMLAA Members.

You can Pay and Register online at <https://give.classy.org/cmlaaMar18cle>