

Faculty Focus

January/February 2011

Evening on the River
Mike Nevin

PUBLICATIONS

Chris Sagers has agreed with Warren Grimes to become the junior author on his Hornbook on The Law of Antitrust: An Integrated Handbook (Hornbook Series Student Edition), available at:

http://www.amazon.com/Hornbook-Law-Antitrust-Integrated-Handbook/dp/0314147063/ref=sr\_1\_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1296061316&sr=8-1

The next edition is tentatively slated to come out in late 2012 or 2013.

Browne Lewis signed a contract to write an electronic book entitled THE LAW OF TRUSTS for CALI. The book should be available this fall.

Browne also published Charity Begins With the Gift Agreement: Keeping Intent Fluid at trustest.jotwell.com.

Karin Mika completed the revision to Legal Writing with Style (5th edition, with Terri LeClercq). As part of the project, she is helping create a "robust" author website. It will include lots of self-grading exercises and appealing graphics. Karin and Terri are also working on creating an app that goes along with the book.

Carolina Academic Press has published the fourth edition of the casebook HOUSING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT, of which Dennis Keating is one of several co-authors.

Dennis also co-authored Cleveland's EcoVillage: green and affordable housing through a network alliance, in HOUSING POLICY DEBATE, Vol. 21(1): 69-91 (January, 2011).

April Cherry's paper, The Detention, Confinement, and Incarceration of Pregnant Women for the Benefit of Fetal Health, was recently listed on SSRN's Top Ten download list for HEN: Women's & Children's Health (Topic). As of 12/30/2010, it was downloaded 154 times. You may view the abstract at <http://papers.ssrn.com/abstract=968468>.

Dena Davis's paper, The Changing Face of 'Misidentified Paternity', was recently listed on SSRN's Top Ten download list for LSN: Paternity (Topic). As of 12/30/2010, it was downloaded 46 times. You may view the abstract at <http://papers.ssrn.com/abstract=1022170>.

ON THE PODIUM

Dena Davis's abstract, Donating Embryos for Stem Cell Research: Time Limits and Other Constraints, has been accepted to be a poster presentation at the 2011 ELSI Congress: Exploring the ELSI Universe, April 12-14, at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill, NC.

Heidi Gorovitz Robertson's abstract Regional Influence of Scandinavian Immigrants on Public Access for Responsible Recreation on Private Land in the U.S. has been accepted for presentation at the Association for Law, Property, and Society, Annual Meeting at Georgetown Law School on March 5, 2011.

Browne Lewis's proposal Until Health Do Us Part: Regulating Assisted Suicide was selected to be presented at the 2011 Health Law Teachers' Conference at Loyola Chicago in June.

Gwen Majette presented The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act: Providing Help to Small Businesses and their Workers for the Global Gateway Program, on November 19, 2010. The Global Gateway series is a professional development series designed to help companies make informed business decisions.

Chris Sagers presented Stitching Together the Past, Present and Future of Antitrust Law in Sports with an American Needle at the Villanova Sports & Entertainment Law Journal Symposium, on January 29, Villanova Law School, Villanova, PA.

Chris also spoke at the Bar Association of the District of Columbia, Symposium on Antitrust and Associations, on February 10th in Washington, DC.

Chris will be a blogger on an antitrust blog maintained by Wolters Kluwer/Aspen, called Antitrust Connect (<http://antitrustconnect.com/>).

Lolita Buckner Inniss presented The Princeton Fugitive Slave Case: Jimmy the College Apple Man and Memories of Slavery at the Emory Conference on Slavery and Universities in early February.

Jonathan Witmer-Rich presented Interrogation and the Roberts Court: Rules for 'Fair Play,' not for Protecting Vulnerable Suspects, at the Ohio Legal Scholarship Workshop at Capital Law School on Saturday, February 7, 2011.

Candice Hoke has been invited to speak at the Workshop on Cybersecurity Incentives at George Mason University on June 16.

Candice has also been invited to speak at Department of Homeland Security events in March and June, on regulatory strategies for increasing cyber security in the private sector.

Candice will speak at the Software Assurance Forum on Thursday, March 3.

IN THE

Chris Sagers was quoted in Killing the 'Killing' Words, by Leslie Savan, available at the Nation.com site: <http://www.thenation.com/blog/157600/killing-killing-words>.

David Barnhizer's article, Redesigning the American Law School, was the subject of a February 4 blog entry on taxprof, available at: http://taxprof.typepad.com/taxprof\_blog/page/2/.

DID YOU KNOW

Steve Lazarus is the outgoing Chair of the Ohio Supreme Court's Commission on Professionalism and will be succeeded in that role by 1995 C|M|LAW graduate Lee Belardo. In December, Phyllis Crocker, Heidi Gorovitz Robertson, and Steve Lazarus attended the one-day Student to Lawyer Symposium in Columbus. The symposium, sponsored by the Court's Commission on Professionalism and attended by law professors, practitioners, judges and Ohio Supreme Court justices, focused on the means by which law schools can help enhance the level of professionalism of law students and new lawyers.

Browne Lewis was selected to serve on the Southeast/Southwest People of Color Legal Scholarship Conference's Student Competition Committee.

Karin Mika was named one of law school's classroom technology innovators by Lexis and was part their Power Point slide show at the AALS.

Karin has also been continuing and expanding her role as the Legal Writing archivist. She collects, creates, and posts materials on a website that she maintains, and she travels around the country acquiring materials and preserving them.

Dennis Keating participated in the annual debate of the Cleveland Civil War Roundtable, arguing the negative: "Would foreign intervention have won the war for the South?"

Former C|M|LAW faculty members Kathleen Engel and Pat McCoy's new book on the subprime virus was recently published. It is available at: http://www.amazon.com/Subprime-Virus-Reckless-Regulatory-Failure/dp/0195388828/ref=sr\_1\_1?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1294342423&sr=8-1.

Chris Sagers participated in the drafting of an amicus brief on behalf of a non-profit antitrust think tank and was lauded by the plaintiff in the case, Tom Rosch on the Federal Trade Commission. See the brief at: <http://www.antitrustinstitute.org/sites/default/files/AAI%20Amicus%20Brief.pdf>.

Sandra English has been accepted into the Center for Progressive Leadership's 2011 Ohio Political Leaders Fellowship program. The Center recruits and trains progressive leaders to advance the progressive movement and reshape the political landscape of our country. Nearly 250 individuals were nominated throughout the state and over 100 people applied for the program competing for approximately 30 spots. See <http://www.progressiveleaders.org/states/ohio/>.

OUR STUDENTS and GRADUATES SHINE

C|M|LAW graduate, Benita Pearson, was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Ohio, sitting in Youngstown. We are so proud of her! See:

http://blog.cleveland.com/metro/2010/12/cleveland\_woman\_confirmed\_by\_u.html.

Our Nationals Moot Court team made it to the Elite Eight--which means they are among the top eight teams in the country in one of the most prestigious national competitions.

C|M| students Caryn Gross and Michael Tangry placed second (out of 95 JD teams competing) in the Young Lawyers Forum of the ABA Section of Taxation's "Law Student Tax Challenge." In addition to the plaques that Caryn and Michal received, noting their achievement, they will each receive a cash prize of $300 and free membership in the ABA Tax Section for two years following their graduation, and a plaque will be presented to Cleveland-Marshall College of Law for inclusion in our trophy case. Congratulations to Caryn and Michael, and to their faculty sponsor, Debby Geier.

C|M|LAW student Kevin Preslan's paper, Turnabout is Fair Play: The U.S. Response to Mexico's Request for Bank Account Information, was selected as the winner of the International Fiscal Association (IFA), USA branch. It will be published in Volume 1, issue 2, of C|M|LAW's The Global Business Law Review. Kevin's paper was sponsored by Debby Geier. Kevin will travel to Atlanta, Georgia, for the two-day Annual Meeting of the IFA USA branch held at the Intercontinental Buckhead Hotel on February 24 and 25 (at IFA's expense), where he will be awarded his $2,000 cash prize at a luncheon presentation on the second day of the meeting. During the course of his two days there, Kevin will be able to attend meetings discussing many current international tax issues. To see an agenda (including the slot where he will be recognized at lunch on the second day), go to <http://www.ifausa.org/Resource.phx/public/annualmeeting/ifa2011/agenda11.htm>

