

Our 5th Annual CIMLAW Hall of Fame Celebration honoring our 2022 Hall of Fame Honorees is on the evening of Friday, November 4, 2022, 5:30-8:00 p.m. at the law school.

This special celebration gives us the opportunity not only to honor the new class of inductees but also is our single best opportunity to raise funds for much-needed student scholarships. The Hall of Fame celebration is the only annual fundraising event sponsored by the law school.

Please consider purchasing one or more tickets, becoming a sponsor, and/or placing an ad in the program book to help celebrate one or more of our 2022 inductees.

Each of our Honorees will be featured in an issue of the CSU CIMLAW newsletter. Meet four of the honorees below.

Judge Thomas W. Gray, Sr.

Class Of 1963 (Deceased)
 Administrative Law Judge, Social Security Administration

CSU Cleveland-Marshall helped fulfill a burning quest to become a lawyer when doors were closed to law school admission in the Deep South. For a young lawyer with a wife and three children, evening classes allowed him to pursue his dreams while at the same time making a living to support his family. It was important to have a strong academic curriculum, but he also met like-minded professionals who became lifelong friends.

Joseph B. Jerome

Class Of 1975 (Deceased)
 Principal, Jerome, Grauer and Associates Ltd.

Joseph B. Jerome was a student of CSU CIMLAW who worked during the day like so many others. He valued the practical education he received, and after graduation he graciously gave back by mentoring, advising and donating – setting a very high bar for engagement. The CSU Cleveland-Marshall community was more than his network, it was his family.

Upcoming Public Lectures & CLE Events

Cleveland State Law Review Symposium: The Future of the Fourteenth Amendment: Autonomy and Equality Post-Dobbs v Jackson

Friday, October 21 • 9:45 a.m.
 Moot Court Room

Following two online symposiums, Cleveland State Law Review returns to an in-person format. The Symposium brings students, attorneys and leading legal scholars from all over the country to discuss the timely and important topic of the future of our rights and equality after the Dobbs v. Jackson decision overruled Roe v. Wade and the right to terminate a pregnancy. The event will include a keynote address by Professor Kim Forde-Mazrui, director of the Center for the Study of Race and Law at University of Virginia School of Law, and four-panel set covering the constitutional interpretation of the Fourteenth Amendment, critical perspectives on equality and autonomy, and the effects of Dobbs v. Jackson. In addition to this important discussion, we will also highlight the relationship between the protection of rights, art, and activism with our first art exhibit, as well as a panel discussing the role that art plays in the law.
