Featured Hall of Fame Honorees

Each of our 2021 Hall of Fame Honorees will be featured in an issue of the CSU CJMLAW newsletter leading up to the Induction Celebration on Friday, November 5. Meet four of the honorees below who share what CSU CJMLAW means to them.

Honorable Basil M. Russo

Class of 1972
 Former Judge, Ohio Eighth District Court of Appeals

"Cleveland-Marshall provided me, as a young married father of two, with the opportunity to obtain a law degree by attending evening classes so that I could work to support my family. The diversified education I received there not only prepared me for a law career, but gave me the background necessary to pursue a political career, as well as a film producing career."

David C. Weiner

Weiner Law, LLC, CJMLAW Board of Visitors

"As an adjunct faculty member, I get the yearly pleasure of interacting with a fresh class of inspiring, dedicated and committed young women and men. They make me look forward to every class and to see their progress as the class proceeds. I have also been excited by the upward progress of the law school—better and better."

F. Scott Wilson

Class of 1981
 Principal, Uplands Consulting LLC, CJMLAW Board of Visitors

"I am very grateful for the many experiences CJMLAW gave me; I felt very well prepared. I have very fond memories of the faculty, working in the library, Moot Court, and especially the spirit of camaraderie that existed among the students. And I met my wife, a classmate, there."

Sonia Winner

President and CEO, The Cleveland Museum of Natural History, Vice-Chair, CJMLAW Board of Visitors

"I am grateful for my legal education as it has given me the opportunity to support the mission of important nonprofits dedicated to children, education, and science. I use my legal education every single day, engaging in problem solving, strategic planning, and advocacy. Cleveland-Marshall remains close to my heart as I continue to be inspired by the backgrounds of our students. It is truly a school of opportunity. That resiliency will serve Cleveland-Marshall students well in all settings, regardless of whether it is in the courtroom or working for a nonprofit."

2021 CSU CJMLAW Leader on the Rise Kimberly Kendall Corral '12

A leader is a person who is engaged with others in order to work toward a common goal or for the greater good. That is an accurate description of the selfless post-conviction and criminal defense work of Kimberly Kendall Corral '12, who is being recognized by CSU Cleveland-Marshall College of Law with our 2021 Leader on the Rise Award.

"Kim personifies everything we are looking for when recognizing a Leader on the Rise," explained CSU CJMLAW Dean Lee Fisher. "She combines immense legal knowledge with a passion for her legal practice and spends each day 'living justice' while working toward post-conviction relief and exoneration for her clients."

"Being named Leader on the Rise is truly an honor," said Corral. "To me, it is an acknowledgment that I am on the right path but also a reminder that I still have a long way to go and a lot that I can accomplish."

Kim will receive her award at CSU CJMLAW's Hall of Fame Celebration on November 5 alongside 25 distinguished alumni, community leaders, and former faculty and staff being inducted in the Hall of Fame who have contributed to the past, present, and/or future success and reputation of CSU CJMLAW.

"It is amazing to be honored around inductees with so much more experience," said Corral. "It is incredible that my work, in a relatively short period, is being measured alongside community leaders with such longevity."

Criminal Justice Forum Defense Dialogues: Representing the Accused Before International Criminal Tribunals

Thursday, November 4 | 5:00 p.m. | Virtual

Kate Gibson

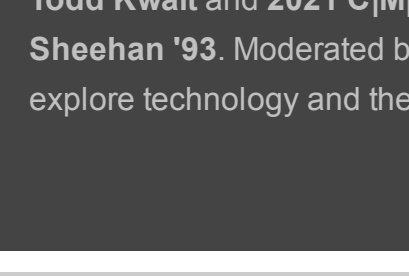

Kate Gibson has been practicing before international criminal courts and tribunals since 2005, appearing before the ICC, ICTR, IRMCT, ECCTC and SCSTL on some of the leading cases before these courts. Currently, Kate is the co-counsel of Bosco Ntaganda before the ICC, and also represents Rohingya victims in the Bangladesh/Myanmar situation. Kate also leads the legal team of Paul Rusesabagina, charged with terrorism in Rwanda, and is a member of the Defense team of former President of Kosovo Hashim Thaçi before the Kosovo Specialist Chambers.

The lecture will discuss her experience as a criminal defense lawyer before the most prominent international criminal tribunals. She will discuss issues such as procedural particularities, but also specialized defenses such as superior orders, necessity, insanity, mental disease, and duress. Finally, she will focus on differences between representing defendants before international tribunals, such as the International Criminal Court, and domestic tribunals.
