Externship Selection Considerations

If you have not yet done an externship but plan to or are at least "undecided," please answer the following questions by thinking about what you would be looking for in an externship.

If you have already done an externship, answer in terms of what you were looking for when you selected it (as opposed to what it turned out to offer you).

If you have already had an externship but are planning to do another, answer either in terms of what you wanted out of the first externship or how you will go about selecting your next one.
